BOARD OF COUNCILMEN.

An action was brought up in this court yesterday, before Commissioner Jones, against Frederick Herr, who is charged with defrauding the state by the wholesale sale of molasses. The defendant was brought in by the state and witnesses were examined as to their business transactions with the defendant, two of whom testified to their having bought molasses from Herr. The case was then adjourned until the next day, when the court will hear the evidence. The defendant is charged with having sold to the state a quantity of molasses, which he represented to be pure, but which was found to be adulterated. The state is seeking damages of $10,000.

POLICE INTELLIGENCE.

ARREST OF A FUGITIVE HOTEL THEFT.—Detective of the Thirtieth precinct, yesterday arrested Alphonse Salsbury, a man thirty-one years of age, on the charge of being a hotel thief. It is charged that on yesterday night Salsbury entered the Kulow House, in the city, and stole a quantity of goods, including a watch and chain, worth $150, besides a coat and vest, of which property belonged to Abraham L. Jacobson, a resident of the city. Salsbury was taken to the police station, where he was held until this morning, when he was committed to the city jail.

CAPTIVE OF AN ARMED CONFIDENCE MAN.—A few days since William Henry Ramsey, a young man, arrived in this city en route to Galveston, Texas. He entered his passage on board a ship lying in the East river, and yesterday afternoon, while Ramsey was in that street, a stranger accosted him, and after a few moments' conversation, he was taken to a room in the city, where he was held captive. The stranger, who was a man of about thirty years of age, and who claimed to be a merchant, told Ramsey that he had a bill for $100, which he wanted Ramsey to cash. Ramsey refused to do so, and the stranger threatened to harm him. Ramsey then fled, but was caught by the police, and taken to the police station.

ARMED EMERGENCE.—Edwin Chapman, a young man formerly a clerk in the employ of Messrs. A. T. Swartz & Co., was yesterday arrested by an officer of the Thirtieth Police Court, on the complaint of William H. Livingston. He charges that on the 7th day of December last he gave Chapman a carpet and account to be collected for him, and that Chapman, instead of collecting the amount of the bill, $163.09, Chapman absconded with the money, but instead of returning the same to the complainant, he appropriated the same to his own use. The accused was held for examination before Justice Hogan.

CRIMINAL ATTEMPT.—Andrew Jordan was arrested at the instance of an officer of the Fourth precinct, on the charge of driving a horse attached to a wagon, the horse being totally unfit for service, his right hind leg being seriously swollen, besides which he had a large tumor on his hind quarters, and was unable to go. The horse was taken to the police station, and the driver was held for examination before Justice Hogan.

THE VEEHAWKEN FERRY BOAT.

The Veehawken Ferry Company Before the Grand Jury of Hudson County, N. J., Only One Charge of Smuggling, &c., &c.

Used as a Hog Pen—The Ladies' Cabin Turned into a Smoking Room and an Obscene Picture Gallery, &c.

The Grand Jury of the County of Hudson and Terminus of Hudson County, N. J., have recently taken cognizance of the following charges against the Veehawken Ferry Company, and the following document will give you the grandest imputation of the kind in the country. It has long been a subject of complaint to all persons who were obliged to use it, and its action of the Grand Jury will doubtless have the effect of bringing about a reformation.

HUDSON OVER AND YERKES, JANUARY TERM, 1887.

The Grand Jurors of the county of Hed-on were respectfully represent that their attention has been called to the past and present management of the ferry, conducted by the Veehawken Ferry Company in this county. Said ferry is used by very many of the citizens of the northern part of the county, who pass from that section to the city of New York, and return thereby. They have ascertained that the want of accommodation, the filthy and filthy and freight, and such boats represented to us to be unsafe for such purpose; their timber being old and rotten, and her
